NEWTON D. BAKER
WAR SECRETARY

WILSON SELECTS FORMER MAYOR OF CLEVELAND, OHIO, TO FILL VACANCY.

NO DELAY IN CONFIRMATION

He Is Lawyer and Was Offered Office of Secretary Interior Twice in 1913
But Declined—Friend of Wilson.

Washington.—Newton D. Baker, former mayor of Cleveland, has been selected by President Wilson for secretary of war. Leaders expect quick confirmation so the new secretary may take active charge of the war department's plans for army increases and re-organization.

Mr. Baker is a lawyer, and as a leader among Ohio Democrats, has been a warm supporter of the Wilson policies since the pre-convention campaign in 1912. He has been a close personal friend of Mr. Wilson since the latter was his instructor years ago at Johns Hopkins University, and was offered the post of secretary of the interior in the original Wilson Cabinet but declined because he then was mayor. He is understood to be in thorough accord with the president on the preparedness program.

An offer of the war secretaryship was made to Mr. Baker by telegraph several days ago after the president had spent more than three weeks carefully going over a long list of those suggested to succeed Secretary Garrison. Mr. Baker accepted and, upon being notified that he would be nominated, at once telegraphed that he would be in Washington this week.

Mr. Baker, who is 44 years old, will be the youngest member of President Wilson's cabinet by more than five years.

PAGE WILL QUIT CONGRESS.

Action Result of Wilson's Demand For Vote on Gore Resolution.

Washington.—Robert N. Page, of the Seventh Congressional district of North Carolina, sharply surprised his colleagues and friends when he announced that he would not be a candidate for re-nomination in the approaching primary. His action was the result of the recent demand by President Wilson that Congress vote upon the resolution of warning to "Americans."

Mr. Page calls attention to the fact that he presented to the committee a resolution expressing confidence in the president, and that the president is not satisfied with an unreserved expression of confidence. "This shifts to the conscience and convictions of members of congress a responsibility that the Constitution imposed upon the executive. Having the responsibility thrust upon me, I claim the right to exercise my own judgment and convictions and not have them dictated by some one else," said Mr. Page.

His letter, which is addressed to the Democratic voters of his district, is filled with striking expressions and is frank to a startling degree.

"I cannot gain the consent of my conscience, much as I would like to gratify the president and meet what seems to be the demands of my constituents, regardless of my conscientious convictions, to in every matter vote as the president requests, thereby assuming responsibility for the loss of a single American's life, or even indirectly stain my hand with his blood. In this instance I am sure that I am in possession of facts which a partial press has kept the people I represent in ignorance."

Continuing, Mr. Page makes a quotation from Christ, "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also."

He declared that the loan of $500,000,000 to England by American capitalists, to say nothing of the profits of munition manufacturers, "has destroyed the semblance even of neutrality in the United States, and will probably lead us into war. I have no pro-German or pro-anything sentiment or inclination other than pro-American."

Nine Persons Burn to Death.

El Paso, Tex.—Six prisoners were burned to death and probably 40 others seriously injured when fire starting from a large tub containing a solution of gasoline and kerosene used to exterminate germ-carrying vermin exploded in the city jail. Many of the victims were thoroughly saturated with the solution when the flames enveloped them and their cries of agony were heard by a great crowd which had assembled on the outside of the jail. About 50 prisoners were taken out unharmed.

Brandeis Took Liquor Case Once.

Washington.—Rev. James Cannon, Jr., of Virginia, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Anti-Saloon League of America, protested against confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis' nomination to the Supreme Court before the Senate investigating committee because of statements made by Mr. Brandeis in 1891 when he was counsel for the Protective Liquor Dealers' Association and the New England Brewers' Association before the Massachusetts Legislature.

MILITARY BILL
NOW IN CONGRESS

MORE SWEEPING CHANGES IN POLICY THAN PROPOSED BY PRESIDENT.

FOUR STRIKING FEATURES

Federal Volunteer Force; Enlisted Reserve; Federalization of National Guard and an Officers' Reserve.

Washington.—The first of the national preparedness measures to reach either house of Congress for consideration was introduced in the senate by Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the military committee, which perfected it after weeks of hearings and conferences. It proposes an even more sweeping change in military policy than that outlined by President Wilson in his annual message, and was described by Mr. Chamberlain as the most comprehensive piece of military legislation ever offered in Congress.

There is no vital difference between the Senate and House measures and both committees believe that when the final bill, which will be agreed upon in joint conference committee, has passed both houses, the president will be able to affix his signature to a measure that will do more than he has asked toward building up an adequate national defense.

Aside from its plan virtually to double the regular army and national guard, the senate bill has four striking features. They are:

Authorization of a purely Federal volunteer force in peace times, the object sought by Secretary Garrison in urging the continental army plan.

Authorization for a definitely enlisted reserve in peace times among men of every profession or calling whose training fits them for special duty either with troops, on lines of communication or supply, or in machine shops and munitions plants.

Federalization of the National Guard under a pay provision designed to bring this force immediately into such relations with the federal government that its training, equipment and personnel will be under supervision of the war department.

Authorization for an officers' reserve and a reserve officers' training corps, which would take in graduates from military schools and colleges and provide for their further development to command.

MOEWE REACHES HOME PORT.

German Raider Reports Sank Fifteen Vessels.

Berlin, via London.—An official statement issued by the General Naval Staff states that the German cruiser Moewe arrived in a German port. She had on board a large number of British prisoners and 1,000,000 marks in gold bars. The announcement says 15 vessels were sunk by the commerce raider.

The statement follows:
"The Naval General Staff states that H. M. S. Moewe, commander Captain Burggrave Count von Dohna-Schlodien, after a successful cruise lasting several months, arrived at some home port with four British officers, 29 British marines and sailors, 166 men of crews of enemy steamers, among them 103 Indians, as prisoners, and 1,000,000 marks in gold bars."

"The vessel captured the following enemy steamers, the greater part of which were sunk and a small part of which were sent as prizes to neutral ports:

"The British steamers Corbridge, 3,687 tons; Author, 3,496 tons; Trader, 3,608 tons; Ariadne, 3,035 tons; Dromonby, 3,627 tons; Farrington, 3,146 tons; Clan MacTavish, 5,816 tons; Appam, 7,781 tons; Westburn, 3,300 tons; Horace, 3,335 tons; Flamenco, 4,629 tons; Saxon Prince, 3,471 tons. The British sailing vessel, Edinburg, 1,473 tons; the French steamer Maroni, 3,109 tons; the Belgian steamer Luxembourg, 4,322 tons. At several points on enemy coast the Moewe also laid out mines to which, among others the battleship King Edward VII fell victim."

Colonel House Returns.

New York.—Col. E. M. House, who sailed for Europe on December 28 on a confidential mission for President Wilson, arrived here on the steamship Rotterdam from Falmouth. As soon as he landed from a special coast guard cutter, which met the Rotterdam at Quarantine, Col. House announced he would leave at once for Washington to meet the president. He declined to comment on his mission or what he had seen or done while abroad. He stated that he was treated with courtesy everywhere.

Ask Austria to Apologize.

Washington.—The United States is preparing to make formal demands upon Austria-Hungary as a result of the attack by an Austrian submarine upon the American tank steamer Petrolite. A note on the subject will be dispatched within the next few days. It was authoritatively stated that the United States would stand by its original contentions and ask an apology for the attack, punishment of the submarine commander, and reparation for the damage done to the vessel.
